

CBA E-Bulletin
November 2003

Annual Meeting

The 2004 CBA Annual Meeting is one week away and we anticipate a successful conference! To date, more than 200 attendees have already registered. This is an excellent opportunity to network, meet with old friends and get acquainted with new ones. Program content covers information beneficial to all attendees.

The weather looks fabulous with partly to mostly sunny skies and a high of 80 degrees. But be sure to check out www.weather.com for any last minute updates or changes.

Looking for a great place to eat while visiting Ft. Lauderdale? Check out these top restaurants in the area:

The Cheesecake Factory

2612 Sawgrass Mills Cir, Sunrise, FL

Decadent cheesecakes and classic American cuisine makes this a popular chain.

Blue Moon Fish Company

4405 W Tradewinds Ave, Lauderdale By Sea, FL

Upscale seafood house lands a few, lets a few get away.

Poppy's Pizza II

8373 W Sunrise Blvd, Plantation, FL

Anthony's Runway 84

330 SE 24th S, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Sinatra plays in the background as hearty portions of Italian eats are served up at this aviation-themed eatery.

Mark's Las Olas

1032 E. Las Olas Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, FL

Whimsical setting and sophisticated food hit the mark.

Jackson's Steakhouse

450 E Las Olas Blvd Ste 190, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Elegant ambience, impeccable service and excellent beef make for a prime steakhouse.

Significant Developments

Each organization was recently sent copies of the report on significant developments. 28 organizations submitted information that will be discussed in more detail at the Annual Meeting. Additional copies will be available onsite in Fort

Lauderdale.

Nominations

The CBA nominating committee has suggested several individuals to fill the vacancies in the Planning and Executive Committees. These include: Arthur Rhodes and Del Johnson for the Executive Committee, William Kuh, Marlo Kauffman and Michael Downs for the Planning Committee, and Sumner Grant as the 2004 Annual Meeting President and Barbara Boigegrain for the 2004 Annual Meeting Vice President. All nominees have been contacted and have agreed to serve. The nominations will be voted on at the Business Meeting.

Keep an eye out for the next e-bulletin for a new member profile and annual meeting wrap up.